Mr. Emmons
Rm. #154
English

We, the class of 1975, dedicate our yearbook to a man who has worked hard as a teacher. He gets involved with his students and takes an interest in what goes on around the school. He's the kind of teacher who students feel they can talk to and he will listen. He coached our Powder Puff team (Jr. and Sr. years), started a dramatic club this year because he felt it was greatly needed and takes an interest in sports. He was asked to write many recommendations for students in our class which have helped us into the college of our choice. His greatest feat, though, is setting up of the Jr.-Sr. English courses, and trying to give everyone his first choice of electives.
We dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Emmons!

Asa Kristina Edfors

I'm 19 years old and live in Karlstad, a town near the Norweigan border, in the western part of Sweden. I came here August 29, and I'm going home in the end of June. I'm glad I came to Cohasset by the ocean, because the town isn't too big, and it's easy to make friends. I'm staying with a very nice family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Myers Jr. on 22 Atlantic Ave., so I have just a short walk downtown and to the beach.

As a whole, I think I've learned and will learn a lot in these few months, not only to speak English, but also a lot about how Americans or New Englanders live. I'm glad to be here and I hope I'll come back some day.

In Sweden, I lived in a rather small town called Mora, which is situated between two lakes in the middle of the country. I'm interested in most sports, especially skiing, water skiing and soccer.

I like Cohasset very much. It's a nice little town where you can make a lot of good friends. The sea and views I find very fascinating. My host family, the Fords, is a very nice family and they take very good care of me.

Cohasset High School is a nice little school where I find the teachers very helpful and the subjects I've taken very interesting. My English has improved greatly since I arrived and I hope I can keep it when I go back to Sweden. One day I hope I can come back and visit Cohasset.
